About Department of Culture and Tourism: The Department of Culture and Tourism conserves and promotes the heritage and culture of Abu Dhabi emirate and leverages them in the development of a world-class, sustainable destination of distinction, which enriches the lives of visitors and residents alike. The organisation manages the emirate's tourism sector and markets the destination internationally through a wide range of activities aimed at attracting visitors and investment. Its policies, plans and programmes relate to the preservation of heritage and culture, including protecting archaeological and historical sites and to developing museums, including Zayed National Museum, Guggenheim Abu Dhabi, and Louvre Abu Dhabi. DCT Abu Dhabi also supports intellectual and artistic activities and cultural events to nurture a rich cultural environment and honour the emirate's heritage. A key role is to create synergy in the destination's development through close coordination with its wide-ranging stakeholder base.

4. COQ Fighter

- Type: International Food Vendor
- Short Description: Born out of frustration at the lack of high quality fried chicken options in London, Coqfighter began as a night for friends at Troy, Tristan and Deacon's apartment in South London. Having spent the beginning of the decade living in Melbourne, they'd enjoyed many hot summer nights eating plates of Korean fried chicken, served with ice drinks in the city's bustling Chinatown district. Nights for friends soon became pop-ups in pubs and after a series of successful residencies Coqfighter found its first permanent home with Boxpark. A short DIY build later and Coqfighter was open to the public with queues to boot. In a few short years Coqfighter has grown to three restaurant locations and a series of delivery kitchens. Their unique East meets West take on fried chicken has grown cult status amongst London's fried chicken fans.

- Short Description: At Tomija, we pride ourselves on serving a true masterpiece - the Spanish (French toast). This delectable treat has a rich history, with traces of its recipe dating back to the 15th century when it was known as the "lost bread." "The name "French toast" didn't come about until the 17th century.

Our establishment, which was established in 2020, serves as a pit stop hub for those who believe there is life beyond just one piece of bread. We have curated a daily grind experience that is truly magical, thanks to our human touch.

We believe in the power of creativity and offer a wide range of toppings to make our toast creations extraordinary.

Additionally, we are proud to source our exclusive coffee beans in Dubai from one of the oldest coffee farmers in the world. This ensures that every cup of coffee we serve is of the highest quality and consistency.

Torrija's success story lies in being the first to introduce this unique recipe to the UAE market. We take pride in our innovative approach, setting the trend for others to follow.

Above all, our friendly service style is at the heart of everything we do. We strive to create a welcoming and warm atmosphere for our customers, ensuring that their experience at Torrija is memorable and enjoyable.

Thank you for being a part of our Tomija Journey.

We look forward to serving you the finest Spanish toast and exceptional coffee.

17. Ugly Noodles by Ugly Bros

- Type: Local Vendor
- Short Description: Ugly Noodles is a "pop up only" dumpling and noodle concept inspired by the streets of Hong Kong. Brainchild of the Ugly Boys, Chef Eric Lee, Chef Khaled, Chang and Young, Ugly Noodles has started and stayed as exclusively pop ups since their first one at To The Moon & Back in February. The signature menu is the plump, juicy Chicken & Shrimp Sichuan Wontons topped with homemade chili oil and the infamously addictive Dan Dan Noodles that packs a punch of flavour that Bruce Lee would be proud of. Other dishes rotate occasionally such as the Impossible Gyoza, Scallop Siumai, Wagyu Beef Skewers and more. Dessert has always featured a collaboration between Ugly and local artisanal gelato maker Canvas Gelato. Some of the more popular gelatos featured were Korean Mandarin Sorbet, Basque Cheesecake Vanilla Gelato and Black Sesame. What started as a passion project has turned into an amazing journey between the brand and its pop up partners, further developing the grass roots collaborative pop up movement in the community. We hope to not just serve delicious food but also to create a blueprint for other aspiring food entrepreneurs to follow in the future.
